LANE, CRAWFORD, LTD.

LADIES' SALON.

WOMAN'S PAGE.

THE CULT OF THE PRINTED COTTON FROCK.

EVERY HOUR—EVERY DAY—ALL SUMMER.

For tennis, gardening and shopping, for garden parties and summer dances, cottons have taken the lead in fashion. Because they're cool, gaily patterned, adaptable to the new mode for femininity.

ROUND THE SHOPS.

Lane, Crawford's. Kiddies' fashions are at their best just now, and I don't think there has been a time when children's clothes have been prettier than they are to-day. In the children's department of Lane, Crawford's there is a new lot of kiddies' French dresses which have arrived this week. These are mostly in voiles, and are all handmade, some with embroidery, others with smocking. A little white voile dress had blue flowers applied down the front and edge, and finished off with a blue collar. These little dresses are to be had in white, blue, a delicate pink, "Lilybet" yellow and a pinkish lavender.

In the ladies' department I saw some new summer hats. I'm sure you'll be charmed with the profusion of charming new styles. There are simple cloches, large drooping brims and small off-the-face types in silk straws, linen, hemp and leghorn; the latter are untrimmed and are all of the very latest shapes. A rather delightful model was a green lace straw; this had tiny berries of pink, blue and yellow taffeta edged with gold thread. A rather striking ensemble was a hat of ecru linen stitched and applied in blue, which is worn with a scarf and bag to match.

Whiteaway's. Children have no intention of relinquishing their hold on the small hat; it suits them too well. Some very pretty hats for kiddies are to be seen here this week. Bands, bow trimmings and flowers are appearing again on children's hats. One I thought very pretty was a cream straw trimmed with pale green ribbon and tiny pink forget-me-nots; the brim had green rouching under lace straw. This would be just the thing for a child of 7 or 8. In this department I also saw some rubber waders—just the thing for kiddies to play and paddle about the beach in. These are to be had in blue, green and pink. In the furnishing department I saw some very handsome dinner services in many different designs. The "Academy" has a blue and gold embossed design, and "Ivanhoe" is in red, blue and gold. These sets are complete with tea and coffee services for 12 persons. I know you will be pleased with kiddies' sets in nursery rhymes; these consist of cup and saucer, bread and fruit plates and porridge bowl, and are priced very low.

Maison Martin. How few of us are aware of our own type, or the dress most suitable to it. This salon caters extensively for every style, and there is no difficulty in finding frocks to suit exactly one's own personality. This designer is always willing to help one before one risks spending money on the wrong thing. I saw an attractive white net frock that would become most women who are young and slender. The style is picturesque yet simple, the frock being appliqued in pink organdie in a large leaf design. I was just in time to see an exquisite Court gown of green silk lace before it was packed to be sent to Macao. Perfectly simple, it had a large flower in green and gold placed on a very long train—altogether a very beautiful and distinctive creation.

Dolly Vardon. This summer is such a flowery one as far as dresses go. Morning and afternoon frocks are all made in pretty floral designs. You will see a delightful array of summer washing dresses if you pay Dolly Vardon a visit. I know you will love them as they are perfectly irresistible. There are odd patterns and colours in voiles, muslin and organdie which are specially created for the new ensembles and street frocks. All colours are fast both as to sun and water, so you can tub them endlessly without spoiling them. If you prefer sleeves, you will be pleased with these, as many are fitted with full length, half, or puff sleeves.

Felix. You will be delighted with the frocks in this shop. There are models with smartly placed tucks, graceful curves and tricky neckline. Most of them are high waisted, and the waistline is either suggested by a belt or well-placed bows. Whether you choose to wear boleros, peplums, capes, swaying or pleated flares or frilly collars, you'll find your ideal in this varied collection. A very charming one was in white with blue and black leaves, and had a collar, jabot and pockets in blue organdie with a touch of black embroidery. Linen tennis dresses are well represented in many styles and colours.

Pioneer. This store is stocked with new goods this week. There are new georgettes in the most attractive floral or geometric designs as well as polka dots and stripes. Plain georgette can be had in 25 different shades. I saw a chic 3-piece pyjama suit made of heavy crepe-de-chine with black and red printed flowers used as a border. The three-quarter length coat which accompanies this suit is lined with satin in bright red. Silk coolie coats in new colours and designs are also to be seen. I was also shown some pretty Persian coats for evening wear in crepe-de-chine with printed flowers. One is sure of getting one's favourite colour, as these come in 45 different colours.

Wing On. Lingerie has always been near and dear to us. Is it not natural then, that since we have adopted form-fitting design in dress, our intimate dress should follow on the same lines? Dainty laces, embroideries, tucks and appliques are a few of the attractive touches on the lingerie being shown at Wing On's this week. They are to be had in flat silk, crepe-de-chine, knitted silk and cotton, in white, flesh, orchid, blue and pink. In this collection I saw a very smart suit of pyjamas made of white crepe-de-chine with a spray of flowers in bright orange across the front.

DETECTIVES SENT TO PRISON.

ATTEMPTED EXTORTION. CHARGE.

DEPRIVING MERCHANT OF HIS FREEDOM.

A man described as a landlord and three detectives employed by the Shanghai Municipal Police were charged before Judge Kuh in the Shanghai Special District Court last week with unlawfully attempting to extort $250 from Wu Zang Kyi, a sand merchant, and further with depriving him of his freedom.

Counsel in the case were Messrs. R. S. W. Winter, for the Police; Mr. Tze Ling, for complainant; Mr. Kuh Zau Chi, for the three detectives; and Y. T. Van, who assisted Mr. Kuh in defending one of the detectives.

According to the N.C. Daily News, the case was the outcome of a quarrel in a Foochow Road tea-shop in which two men had an argument over $1,000. Complainant settled the matter and, after he had done so, the three detectives came in and told him he was wanted on a charge of abduction, which he strongly denied. Complainant was taken to Central Police Station and the charge was changed to one of pocket-picking. After being detained for a while, the detectives took him into a small room and told him that he would be released if he gave a dinner. Later, he was released. At the request of the landlord, complainant handed this man $100 in notes and a cheque for $150 "to be distributed among the detectives." The landlord was arrested with these notes in his possession after complainant had reported to the police, but the detectives apparently found out that a report had been made of the matter so they refused to take the money when it was offered to them by the landlord.

Slapped About the Face.

Mr. Tze Ling said that complainant had been slapped about the face by the detectives as he was taken to the station. The first accused was the middleman in the transaction and he got into touch with complainant and told him to pay the detectives $250 to settle the matter. This was paid. Complainant deposed that he was a sand merchant and lived in Chapel. Giving his version of the events following his arrest, he said that the detectives took him into a small room and threatened to torture him if he did not give them assistance. He saw the first accused, the landlord, come and talk to the detectives, after which he approached him (complainant) and told him the detectives wanted $500 to release him. It was arranged to pay $250. He paid the money in marked notes after his release and reported the matter to headquarters, giving a sample of the marked notes.

The first accused said that he was related to complainant (which the latter denied) and he only tried to bring about his release. He said the detectives refused to accept the money when he offered it to them and complainant refused to take it back when he tried to give it back.

The detectives gave more or less similar versions, denying the charges. They learned that complainant was an offender wanted in connection with certain cases so they had arrested him. When they learned that there was no evidence against him, they released him. There was no suggestion of any monetary payments.

The landlord was sent to prison for six months and the detectives received two years and six months, plus a fine of $500, each. They were deprived of their civil rights for ten years.

Notice of appeal was given.

"STILL INCOMPLETE," SAYS
FOREIGN MINISTER.

CORNER-STONE OF FOREIGN POLICY.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, June 25.

The maintenance of peace but the attainment of full political freedom and equal rights will be one of the corner-stones of Germany's foreign policy, declared Dr. Curtius in the Reichstag during a debate on the estimates of the Foreign Ministry.

Dr. Curtius said that the liquidation of the war was still incomplete, and that Germany did not want a division of states into separate camps.

The League of Nations, he continued, stands in the front rank of importance, but the provisions for the settlement of all international disputes are still defective.

Dr. Curtius added that the progress made in disarmament, protection of minorities or economic co-operation was too slow.

BRITAIN'S NAVAL CONSTRUCTION.

PROGRAMME THIS YEAR.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, June 25.

Mr. A. V. Alexander, First Lord of Admiralty, announced in the House of Commons to-day the Government's naval construction programme for 1930 as follows:—Three cruisers all of the six-inch gun type, one flotilla of destroyers comprising one leader and eight destroyers, three submarines, four sloops and one mine-layer and a target towing vessel.

A supplementary estimate, said Mr. Alexander, would be introduced for the small sum required to be spent in this financial year on these vessels.

These ships were required to replace others which would have passed the age limit to enable the Royal Navy to carry out its current duties in time of peace. The programme had no relation to those of other Powers.

Mr. Alexander added that the total cost, spread over three years, would be about £9,000,000.

THE SILVER SCREEN.

"LUCKY STAR" AT THE QUEEN'S.

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell are to be "seen" in their first combined talkie at the Queen's Theatre, "Lucky Star," which starts and finishes with a fight between the same men over the same girl. In between these contests there is some "Western front" fighting, in which the hero sustains a wound which leaves him paralyzed from the waist down.

How the helpless cripple—only half a man, as he is scornfully described—by a tremendous effort wins the girl of his heart from the "Big Boy" who is about to carry her off is a powerful climax to a thrilling picture, full of action.

The Metrotone news pictures preceding the main pictures gives some interesting glimpses of scenes from overseas.

"The City Gone Wild" at the Majestic.

A machine-gun battle between rival gangs is the startling opening sequence of "The City Gone Wild," Thomas Meighan's new Paramount picture, which will be shown at the Majestic Theatre, Kowloon, to-day. Meighan plays a criminal lawyer who later becomes District Attorney because of his love for a beautiful society girl. In filming this powerful underworld story by Charles and Jules Furthman, James Cruze, the director, assembled a cast which includes Mariette Miller, Fred Kohler, Louise Brooks, Nancy Phillips, and King Zany.

PROHIBITION IN U.S.A.

MR. MORROW'S MAJORITY.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Newark, N.J., June 19.—Mr. Dwight W. Morrow's plurality of 300,000 votes in the New Jersey Republican Senatorial primary election was the largest ever recorded in the State, it was announced to-day.

The spectacular achievement of Mr. Morrow was rendered especially notable, it was pointed out, in view of the fact that he lessened his chances of success by the fact that he stood for both the long and the short terms whereas his "dry" opponent, Representative Franklin W. Fort, who was backed by the Anti-Saloon League, was on the ticket only for the long term nomination while former Senator J. S. Frelinghuysen was in similar situation.

Because of the fact that Mr. Morrow's name was thus down on the ballots in two places, while the names of Mr. Fort and Mr. Frelinghuysen were down but once, political experts had forecast that Mr. Morrow's decision might cost him 20 per cent. of the votes. New Jersey voters are accustomed to voting for but one candidate, and it was anticipated that a given voter might, for example, vote for Mr. Morrow for the short term and another candidate for the long term.

Double Voting.

This situation arose through the fact that New Jersey laws require that a successor to Senator David A. Baird, appointed when Mr. Walter E. Edge resigned his Senatorship to become Ambassador to France, should serve only from election date until March 4, and that an election should be held at the same time for a full Senate term of six years. In standing for both the short and long terms Mr. Morrow admittedly risked the loss of a large number of votes.

It was announced to-day that Mr. Morrow will soon return to Mexico to conclude his functions as U.S. Ambassador there, coming back as soon as possible to continue his campaign for the final election.

Campaign expenditures of Mr. Dwight W. Morrow amounted to approximately $250,000, it was learned here to-day in connection with the Republican Senatorial campaign just concluded.

Wet Leader Undisturbed.

Washington, June 19.—In announcing results of his survey of the recent Congressional primaries, Mr. F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, said to-day that the prohibition complexion of the nominees was unchanged as compared with analysis of the views of those they may replace.

There was actually a net loss of one "wet," according to Mr. McBride—Senator Gould of Maine. His successor, Mr. White, is a "dry."

DESCRIPTION OF A TORTOISE.

PUZZLE OVER HAWKER'S LICENCE.

For hawking boiled tortoises a Chinese was summoned before Mr.
R. E. Lindsell yesterday with failing to comply with the conditions of his licence.

It appears that in issuing licences to hawkers it is required that the goods the hawker proposes to deal in should be specifically stated. His Worship asked the prosecuting police officer under what heading he would put tortoises?

The officer replied that tortoises did not come under cooked food, and he would, therefore, include them in "sundries."

His Worship: You would not call them hardware, although they came near it.

The hawker, who claimed that tortoises had a medicinal value, was fined $2.

NAMHOI MAGISTRATE SENDS DELEGATE.

CHINESE MILITARY OFFICER IN COURT.

Extradition proceedings against the three Chinese, who are wanted by the Canton authorities for the alleged murder of Tam Yeung, were
sell at the Central Magistracy yesterday. The alleged crime was said to have occurred at Tai Foo Village, Nam Hoi District, near Fatsan, on May 3, 1929.

Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, Assistant Attorney-General, appeared for the prosecution, while Mr. Hin Shing Lo was for the defence.

Evidence was given by Cheung Hung Sing, commander of a battalion in the Namhoi District, who stated that he had been delegated to Hong Kong by the Magistrate in his district to assist in the present case. He said that he had been requested to bring before the Court certain documents and a petition. Replying to a question as to how a petition was usually filed in his district, he stated that a petition could either be signed by the petitioner, or the one who wrote the petition.

In answer to Mr. Hin Shing Lo, he said that he was not related to two of the witnesses for the Crown.
He could not offer any explanation why he, a soldier, was preferred in rendering assistance to the Court, and not the clerk, or other civil servants, attached to the Magistracy in Nam Hoi. He suggested that probably it was because of the important nature of the mission.

Describing his duties in Nam Hoi witness said he was employed to afford whatever protection necessary to the Magistracy in Nam Hoi, to collect rates, and also to dispatch troops to quell any disorder that might arise.

After hearing of further evidence,
the case was adjourned.

JOHN WILLIAMS.

ACTOR-KIDNAPPER SENTENCED.

VICTIMS RELEASED AFTER PAYMENT OF RANSOM.

HELD IN CAVES FOR THREE MONTHS.

Chau Hung Chuen (36), of Siam, again appeared before Mr. A. W.
G. H. Grantham at the Central Magistracy yesterday when he was charged with having kidnapped So Cheung and Fong Pui. Evidence by the relatives of the kidnapped persons, regarding negotiations for the redeeming of the missing men, was given, and it was alleged that the defendant had received large sums of money by holding out promises of restoring the kidnapped men. The Magistrate convicted the defendant and sentenced him to 12 months' hard labour.

The defendant was represented by Mr. A. E. Hall.

In outlining the case at the previous hearing, Inspector J. Murphy said that the two victims were with the defendant when the three left the Colony for Nam Kong, where they were to be engaged in certain work. Whilst they were in Chinese territory a number of armed bandits kidnapped So Cheung and Fong Pui, but the defendant was not molested. The two unfortunate men were imprisoned in caves for three months, until they were eventually ransomed by their relatives.

Intermediary a Fraud.

As a result of twelve letters which were supposed to be sent to her from her son, said Fong Pui's mother, she had journeyed over ten times to Chinese territories in the hope of recovering her son. She had paid over $1,000 before her son was released; $700 was actually paid to the bandits, and $400 handed over to the defendant, who had promised to restore Fong Pui.
After payment of $400 to the defendant, he asked for a further $100. She was on her way to Nam Kong for this purpose, when she met a Chinese who told her that the defendant was a fraud, as he had no power to free Fong Pui.
Further negotiations with bandits followed, and after payment of $700, her son was released.

Evidence was also given by So Sze, sister of So Cheung, the other victim. She said that as a result of a number of letters, purported to be sent to her by her brother, she journeyed to Nam Kong. At the railway station she was accosted by the defendant, who asked if he had come to discuss the ransom of the kidnapped man. At this meeting, the accused demanded a sum of $5,000. Witness then replied that she could not raise this amount.

On the second occasion when they met, the accused reduced the amount $1,000, but it was finally agreed that $540, together with delivery of certain commodities such as electric torches, cigarettes, batteries, etc., was the minimum amount payable. For some reason or other, however, the accused was not present at the third meeting when the money was paid over to the bandits. So Cheung, said witness, was subsequently released.

Evidence of Arrest.

Evidence of arrest was given by a Chinese detective, who said that the defendant and So Cheung were seen in a struggle at Pak Hoi Street on June 5. So Cheung explained the part played by the accused in the kidnapping affair, and the detective then placed him under arrest.

Chau Hung Chuen, the defendant, who described himself as an actor, said that he made the acquaintance of a man named Wong Ah Suh in a ten-shop. Wong offered him an engagement in a certain village in Chinese territory. Wong also got two other men, So Cheung and Fong Pui, to go into the country. When they were travelling in a train, bandits attacked them and held them prisoners. Continuing, defendant stated that his brother, who was now away from the Colony, paid his ransom and effected his release. He returned to the Colony and had never been out of Hong Kong since then. Defendant denied having any dealings with the bandits, or that he took any part in negotiating with the complainant's relatives.

Mr. Hall, in closing his case, said that there appeared to be some doubt as to the identity of the defendant. Further, he thought that although it was a fact that the complainants had been kidnapped,
he was inclined to think that Wong Ah Suh had engineered the whole affair, and that the defendant was probably a tool of Wong.

His Worship found the prisoner guilty, and passed sentence of one's year's hard labour.

SNATCHER FOILED.

ATTEMPTED THEFT OF A HANDBAG.

A hue and cry was raised in Des Vaux Road Central at about 3 p.m. yesterday when a Chinese snatched a handbag and made an attempt to get away with it.

The owner of the bag, Mrs. Siu Wai Chuen, pursued the alleged thief, who was eventually stopped by a sub-officer of the Fire Brigade near the Bakilly Company's promises. He was handed over to a constable and will be brought before the Magistrate this morning.
The handbag, which was recovered, contained a sum of $270, besides jewellery and sundries, making a total value of $412.

TONG KA WAN.

STAGES OF ITS DEVELOPMENT.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, June 26.
Commenting upon his scheme for the development of Tong Ka Wan into a world port, Mr. Tang Shao Yi said to the newspapermen this morning:—

"The most important thing in the development of a port is the problem of communication and transportation. This must be first solved before anything can be done. And this is exactly what we shall do in our plans for the development of Tong Ka Wan. Highways will be built leading to Sheki and other commercial centres in the immediate interior of the province. This is to facilitate transportation and communication between Tong Ka Wan and other places.

"After the construction of highways comes the construction of wharves, the building of godowns, and above all, a bund. All this will require huge sums of capital and labour, but I believe they will be done, in time.

"Next in importance are the municipal enterprises, such as the installation of a telephone system, a water pipe system, the building of an electric power plant, and the like. All this will also be done in due course.

"The problems of the development of industries will next be taken up. With such facilities and inducements I believe that industries of every description will flourish very well in Tong Ka Wan.

"All these things are being discussed with the Committee for the development of Tong Ka Wan, consisting of General Chen Ming Shu, General Au Yang Kui, Mr. Wong Kui So, Mr. Chen Hing Wan, Dr. Chung Wing Kwong and Mr. Tsoi Chang."

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the Canton General Chamber of Commerce, at which Mr. Tang Shao Yi outlined his scheme in detail for the development of Tong Ka Wan.

Several hundred persons, largely merchants and high officials, were present.

The scheme outlined by Mr. Tang was in the main what he said to the newspaper reporters as given above.

CHINESE ACTOR SUEB ON A LOAN.

SALARY OF $45,000 A YEAR.

A loan of $1,000 made to a Chinese actor at the Ko Shing Theatre in January, 1928, was the subject of litigation at the Summary Court yesterday before the Puisne Judge (Mr. Justice Wood). The plaintiff was Ma Tau Nam, a former proprietor of the theatre, and the defendant was Sit Kok-Sin.

Mr. G. S. Hugh-Jones, for the plaintiff, said that the defendant admitted receiving the money, but his defence was that it had been repaid by a statement of account between the parties. Under these circumstances he thought the onus was on the defence.

Mr. F. E. Nash, who appeared for the defendant, agreed with this contention. He said that the defendant was serving the Hip Wo Company at a salary of $40,000 a year when the plaintiff took over the business under the name of Wo Ping. The money was advanced to defendant on an agreement reached between him and the former proprietors. Defendant's salary was raised to $45,000 a year, and the business was later transferred to the Tai Tung. A settlement of account was then made between plaintiff and defendant by which the latter admitted liability to the extent of $11,578.74, which was to be deducted from his salary.

The $1,000 advanced, Mr. Nash contended, was included in that settlement. If the plaintiff could establish that the sum was not included in the settlement, then defendant would be willing to pay it. Plaintiff also gave a note to defendant saying that the account was settled between them, and further stating that any other notes in existence were null and void.

Defendant gave corroborative evidence, stating that he was quite satisfied in his own mind that the $1,000 was included in the settlement sum.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hugh-Jones, defendant agreed that some actors were continually in debt to their employers. In his own case he owed the Hip Wo over $4,000 and he had overdrawn $15,000 from the previous proprietors, for which sum plaintiff assumed liability when he took over. It was arranged that the amount be deducted from defendant's salary.

The case was adjourned until Monday.

AVIATION TRAGEDY AT CANTON.

AIRPLANE EXPLODES IN MID-AIR.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, June 26.

A sad tragedy occurred in Canton yesterday morning at about 8 o'clock when an airplane of the Canton Aviation School at Tai Shan Tau, caught fire and exploded in mid-air, involving the loss of two lives.

The machine had been used for practice by the students of the School.

When it ascended on its ill-fated flight, it was manned by Mr. Chang Tung, chief instructor of aviation at the School, and Mr. Shek Ngok Fu, his student. The instructor was teaching his student how to fly. The plane was apparently in good condition when it left the field. But after it had soared to the north-eastern suburb of the city to a height of about 2,000 feet, trouble suddenly developed.

The pilot noticed that gasoline was leaking out of the container in no small quantities. He appreciated the danger, and at once stopped the engine and dived downward. But before this could be done, the gasoline tank had caught fire and exploded with terrific violence. This in turn set the whole plane on fire, which plunged to the ground near Yellow Flower Hill like a burning meteor.

Both men were killed instantly. The instructor, Mr. Chang, was a foreign returned student, being a graduate of a famous aviation school in Canada. He returned to China in 1917 and had been in Government service ever since. He had a brilliant career as an army aviator, having participated in nearly every campaign against the North. He was promoted to the post of chief of the flying department of the School only 10 days ago. The student who was with him at the time was a native of Chekiang.

ALLEGED UTTERING FORGED BANK NOTE.

CHINESE YOUTHS CHARGED.

Further evidence was taken when the case in which two Chinese youths are charged with uttering a forged $100 bank-note was again heard before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday.

The defendants are alleged to have uttered the $100 forged bank-note at the Kum Toi Hotel in Nathan Road, Kowloon, on May 17 where they engaged two rooms.

Sergeant Fittes appeared for the prosecution while Mr. F. C. E. Rendall was for the second defendant. Mr. F. X. d'Almada, Jr., held a watching brief on behalf of one of the witnesses.

Wong Lai Chan, residing at 30, Jordan Road, stated that she met the first defendant, Wong Kam, about three months ago. On May 17 the first defendant came to her house and asked her to change a $100 Chartered Bank note for him. She was on the point of doing so when her amah advised her not to do it. On May 18 the first defendant, together with the second defendant, came to her house and asked her to go for a pony ride in Mongkok.

The next day, after she had been to a cinema theatre, she met a policeman who took her to the Yau-mat Police Station where she found first defendant in the detectives' office.

Cross-examined by Mr. Rendall, witness stated that she had never been to the Kum Toi Hotel before.

Tam Kwai, the sub-accountant of the Kum Toi Hotel, was then called. He stated that the first defendant, after engaging a room on May 17, gave him a $100 note to change. Witness handed the defendant $10 and asked him to come back later to collect the balance as he had not enough money at the time.

The next day, witness continued, the accountant Lam Kai, took the note to the Kung Sheng Bank in Nathan Road and was told that it was a forgery. An hour afterwards, the first defendant told him to change the note. Defendant then replied that he would go to the Po Hing Theatre to find a friend.

Witness, with the accountant Lam Kai, followed him and as the defendant could not produce the friend, he was handed over to the police.

At this stage, the Magistrate decided to adjourn the case until this morning.

"IRONSIDES" NEXT MOVE.

KWANGTUNG OR KIANGSI?

GUERRILLA WARFARE AGAINST NANKING.

The military situation in Hunan is obscure and it is doubtful whether the Kwangsi and "Ironside" forces are going to attack Kwangtung again or invade Kiangsi.

While it is reported that the rebels are striking southward in an attempt to attack Kwangtung or to recapture Kwangsi, it is understood that the real objective is Kiangsi. According to the latter report, the rebels have realized that it would again prove fruitless for them to attack Kwangtung or recapture Kwangsi, in view of the fact that they are greatly outnumbered by the Cantonese troops who are in a much better position in point of finance, ammunition and communications.

They will most probably invade Kiangsi where the garrison troops are limited in number. It is surmised that a portion of the Kwangsi troops under Wong Shu Hung, which are advancing ostensibly to re-attack Kwangtung, intend to harass the Cantonese troops with a view to preventing them pursuing the main forces of the rebels who are invading Kiangsi.

A Kwangsi-Fukien Alliance.

Under the present circumstances, the rebels can only invade Kiangsi. When they occupy this province, they will either strike northward to menace the Nanking troops on the lower course of the Yangtze, or move southward to occupy Fukien and Eastern Kwangtung. Furthermore, the mutineers in Kiangsi and the anti-Nanking troops under Lu Hsing-Pang in Fukien, who have declared for them, will undoubtedly join them when they capture Kiangsi. In fact, Kiangsi is the ideal place for the activities of the Kwangsi "Ironside" forces under the present circumstances.

According to messages regarding the campaign in Hunan, fighting is raging between the main forces of the rebels and the Cantonese troops under Tsoi Ting Kai and Chiang Kung Tai at Yuhshien in Eastern Hunan near the Kiangsi border.

Lelyang Attacked.

A portion of the Kwangsi troops under Wong Shu Hung are attacking Lelyang in Southern Hunan, where the Cantonese troops under Li Yang King are quartered. Fighting on this sector has been very serious and both sides are said to have sustained over 10,000 casualties each. Reinforcements are being sent to Southern Hunan from Canton.

The Hunanese troops under Governor Ho Chien are attacking the main forces of the rebels from the north, while the Kiangsi troops have been withdrawn to Kiangsi as a precautionary measure against the entry of the rebels into Kiangsi.

CHINESE GIRL WHO NEEDS REFORMING.

NOT A CASE FOR THE SALVATION ARMY.

The possibility of the Salvation Army interesting themselves in a young Chinese girl was investigated by the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday when he had to deal with the offender who appeared for the eleventh time on a charge of hawking without a licence.

Sergeant Barnicle informed the Magistrate that he understood the Salvation Army only accepted orphans. Further, he did not think either the girl or her mother would agree to that course.

In imposing a fine of $10, or fifteen days' hard labour, the Magistrate pointed out to the girl that she had been cautioned four times and fined on five occasions, while on another occasion the mother had gone surety for the daughter. The girl's mother was warned that her own licence would be cancelled if the girl persisted in breaking the regulations.

SALISBURY COMPANY RETURNS.

SELECTION OF POPULAR PLAYS.

The Salisbury Company returned to Hong Kong yesterday by the steamship Coblenz from their tour in North China, and after a short season to-night at the Star Theatre, Kowloon.

As will be seen from an advertisement appearing elsewhere, this Company is offering an interesting selection of old and new popular plays—musical, dramatic, and farcical. The season opens to-night with "The Girl Friend," and includes such first-class fare as "The Man From Toronto" and "When Knights Were Bold." Those who did not see "Journey's End" when the Company passed through the Colony some weeks ago will have an opportunity of seeing this much-discussed play on Wednesday, July 2.

TWO BILLS PASS FIRST READING.

MEETING OF LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Two Ordinances passed their first reading at a meeting of the Legislative Council held yesterday. One of the Bills related to the appropriation of a supplementary sum of $304,538.83, details of which were published yesterday. The other was an amendment to the New Territories Regulation Ordinance, 1910.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir William Peel, K.B.E., C.M.G., presided, and others present were as follows:—

Col. W. D. S. Brownrigg, D.S.O.
Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax, C.M.G., O.B.E.

Hon. Mr. H. T. Crenky, C.B.E.
Hon. Mr. C. McI. Messer, O.B.E.
Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, C.M.G.
Hon. Mr. C. G. Alabaster, K.C., O.B.E.

Hon. Dr. A. R. Wellington.

Hon. Commander G. F. Hole, R.N. (retired).
Hon. Mr. A. E. Wood.

Hon. Sir Shou-sun Chow.
Hon. Dr. E. H. Kotewall, C.M.G.

Hon. Dr. S. W. Tso, O.B.E.
Hon. Mr. J. Owen Hughes.
Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson.
Hon. Mr. Paul Lauder.
Hon. Mr. C. Gordon Mackie.
Hon. Mr. A. F. B. Silva-Netto.

New Member Sworn In.

Prior to proceeding with the business of the meeting, the Hon. Mr. A. E. Wood, who took his seat in the Legislative Council for the first time, was sworn in.

The Colonial Secretary (Hon. Mr. Hallifax) moved that the report of the Finance Committee (No. 7) dated June 10, 1930, be adopted. This was seconded by Hon. Mr. C. McI. Messer and carried.

Ratification of Approved Expenditure.

In moving the first reading of "An Ordinance to authorize the appropriation of a supplementary sum of $304,538.83 to defray the charges of 1929, the Colonial Secretary said:—

Sir,—The passing of the Supplementary Appropriation Bill, which is needed annually after the closing of the accounts of the preceding year constitutes the formal ratification of expenditure which has already been approved in the detailed form of finance messages, by the Finance Committee of the Council and has actually been incurred by the Government under that authority. Many of the minutes in the finance messages represent only re-allocations of expenditure as set out in the approved estimates for the year under consideration and are not additional calls upon the public purse. Reference to the draft appropriation account in fact will show in this respect that there are savings of over $2,800,000 on the year's working.

The dangerous situation in respect of water last year compelled the Government to postpone expenditure that could be and means be held over, because though the cost of the water emergency fortunately did not exceed the $375,000 voted, it was impossible until late in the year to foretell the amount that would ultimately be needed to meet the crisis.

The sum concerned for 1929 is $304,538.83 a total close to the previous year's low record of $292,104.79 and comparing favourably with the total for a number of previous years which was in the region of $1,000,000.

The appropriation account contains the fullest details of every item and it is unnecessary for me to delay hon. members longer than is required to refer to one outstanding matter.

Water Shortage Recalled.

The Water Emergency cost the Colony a total sum of $357,092 as will be seen on page 30 of the draft appropriation account—a sum greater than the total with which we are now dealing, but a part of the expenditure was covered by savings in the department.

A seasonal paper giving the history of the emergency has been prepared and is now in the printers' hands and will shortly be laid on the Council table.

I beg, Sir, to move the first reading of this Bill.

Hon. Mr. C. McI. Messer: I beg to second the motion.

This was put to the meeting and carried unanimously.

New Territories Regulation Ordinance.

In moving the first reading of "An Ordinance to amend the New Territories Regulation Ordinance, 1910, the Attorney-General, Hon. Mr. Alabaster, said that the object of the Bill was to allay some doubts which had arisen over the construction of section 4 (20 and 24) of Ordinance No. 34 of 1910. He added that a very full memorandum of objects and reasons is attached to the Bill.

The motion was seconded by the Colonial Secretary and passed.

DOGS AND METAL BADGES.

A QUESTION OF REVENUE?

PEOPLE WHO DO NOT READ THE "GAZETTE."

When Mr. J. M. d'Almada Remedios appeared before the Kowloon Magistrate yesterday on behalf of his brother who was summoned for not having his dog muzzled and not having a metal badge attached to the animal's collar, he pleaded guilty but remarked that while the first summons was quite clear, he did not understand the second one. He and his brother have kept dogs for over twenty years but he never had a metal badge attached to their dogs' collars.

Mr. Remedios added that unless one subscribed to the Government Gazette, one would not be well up with the regulations concerning dogs. He supposed that he would perhaps be the next one caught!

Sergeant Brown stated that the badge was issued with the licence and if one lost it he could get another from the authorities on payment of $1.

Mr. Remedios: I see; the Crown are thinking of the revenue! A fine of $5 was imposed on the first charge while a fine of $3 was ordered on the charge regarding the metal badge.

Another Summons.

In a second summons, Mr. J. Noronha of 23, Ashley Road, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 for allowing his dog to be abroad without a muzzle, and for failing to take out a licence for the animal.

ALLEGED FURIOUS DRIVING.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST LORRY DRIVER.

SEQUEL TO ABERDEEN ACCIDENT.

A sequel to the serious accident on Tuesday in which a lorry turned turtle on the main road in Aberdeen was the appearance of the driver before Mr. R. E. Lindell yesterday.

It will be recalled that 25 people were injured and sent to hospital as a result of the accident. The lorry driver was charged with causing bodily injuries to 25 people by wanton and furious driving, and with driving in a reckless manner. He pleaded guilty to the first charge and his Worship observed that that would render the second charge unnecessary.

Inspector Alexander informed his Worship that the view of the police, who found the brake and the engine of the lorry in good condition, was that the defendant must have been driving at a furious rate to have caused the accident.

The Magistrate: Are any of the persons detained in Hospital likely to die?

Inspector Alexander: One of them is in a serious condition and two others may become just as serious.

The Magistrate: If anyone of them dies, a charge of manslaughter would be preferred against defendant!

Inspector Alexander: That is so, your Worship.

His Worship: Remanded until this day week. Bail a thousand dollars.

BIG OPIUM HAUL.

At the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, Detective-Sergeant W. G. Humphreys applied for the confiscation of 1,700 taels of non-Government prepared opium. It was stated that the drug was found hidden under the starboard coal bunker on the s.s. Hin Sang during a search which was carried out on Wednesday night. The haul was valued at over $20,000.

The Magistrate granted the application.

Petrol Tax.

The Attorney-General then moved the second reading of "An Ordinance to provide for the taxation of Light Hydro-carbon Oils." The Bill passed its second reading after the meeting had gone in committee to deal with the Bill clause by clause. In moving the second reading the Attorney-General said that the Bill was read the first time at the last meeting of the Council and that he had nothing to add to what he had then said.

The Attorney-General also moved the third reading of the Bill, but in so doing added that he wished to add the word "off" in the marginal notes of clause 22. The Bill duly passed its third reading.

Finance Committee.

After the meeting of the Legislative Council the Finance Committee approved of six items of expenditure amounting to $49,276.

THE FIVE DEMONS.

Once more there has been some very plain speaking by Dr. Hu SHIH on the subject of China's troubles. The country, he says, is tormented by five demons—appalling poverty, universal disease, woeful ignorance, greed and corruption among officials, and civil war—and the last is the worst. Dr. Hu SHIH is scornful of the pretensions of China's military leaders—men who have been three years in a Japanese Military Academy or who have climbed up—not necessarily by virtue of their ability—from the ranks, and he might have added "of bandits." Equally scornful is he of the students who run about the country shouting and posting slogans in support of the very men who are steadily bringing the country to ruin.

With ten or twenty years of freedom from civil strife, says Dr. Hu SHIH, China could rid herself of the evil influence of the other four demons. It is the demon of civil war which first needs exorcising, but "sloganeering" by students will not help—at least, not unless some very different slogans are adopted. Until the scattered and rival military forces in China are brought under one control there can be no peace. Cessation of hostilities there will be, until such time as a regrouping of forces gives an ambitious man reason to believe he can secure some advantage for himself and his colleagues. Dr. Hu SHIH can see no way out of this devastating cycle of civil war save by the influence of education, and it is to be hoped the students who heard his address and those who read it will profit by his good advice.

"SAFETY FIRST" IN THE AIR.

In view of the keen practical interest taken in flying by many residents of the Colony, it is worth while reviewing briefly the steps which are being taken in England to make the use of private aircraft safer for all concerned. Air Ministry strength and performance specifications for private aircraft have gone far toward eliminating any reasonable likelihood of fire in the air, or of the structural part of an airplane failing in the air even under excessive strain, but the danger to pilots themselves and to others in the air, or on the ground, through sheer recklessness or stupid flying, are matters which the management of private flying-clubs must, as far as possible, themselves overcome.

Engines have become astonishingly reliable, and airplanes sensibly handled have become remarkably safe. Thoughtlessness, recklessness and lack of judgment to-day probably account for 85 per cent. of all accidents in private flying. These three factors can probably never be wholly eliminated, but the flying-schools and private light-plane clubs, by a combination of severe penalties for reckless flying, including the suspension of pilots' licenses, and by demanding more proficiency than hitherto before a pupil is permitted to go solo, are determined this year to keep the number of accidents as low as is humanly possible. This movement toward air safety is roughly to be taken in three directions. Low flying over residential property, big towns, or crowds is to be definitely prohibited under penalty of heavy fine and suspension of the pilot's license. No pilot is to be permitted to stunt over towns or a "friend's house" and stunting over aerodromes is only to be permitted by experienced experts, or by pupils who have had more than 50 hours of solo flying and have satisfactorily demonstrated to an instructor their ability to loop, spin, barrel-roll, and side-slip to cross-wind landings in small fields. Further, every attempt is to be made to reduce the noise of aircraft, as a contributory factor in air-sickness in some pupils, and in making other pupils sleepy through its monotony in a long flight.

Finally, to reduce accidents on the ground and collisions in the air, two new rules are planned. All aerodromes will probably be required to have an eight-armed "star" permanently inlaid in the centre of the field. According to the direction of the wind, one or another of these arms will in effect roughly divide the field into halves. According to the environment of the particular aerodrome, all machines taking-off will do so from one side of the field, and all machines landing will alight on the other side. To reduce collisions in the air, a system of one-way traffic will be installed, and all experienced pilots, unless an emergency arises, will immediately on taking-off do all their flying at a considerable distance from the aerodrome, leaving the air near the aerodrome as free as possible for the use of instruction machines, and pupils in early stages of solo flying. This will give the beginners opportunity to practice their innumerable take-offs, and landings, with less chance of getting "rattled" than they would if more machines were in the air at the same time. These are the broad principles of the plans that are on foot to increase the safety of flying at each of Great Britain's twenty-four private light-plane flying-clubs, but extensions and ramifications of the plans are being made by the officers of each of the clubs to meet the particular requirements of their own organization.

AN ADMIRAL'S VIEWS ON SINGAPORE.

LITTLE is heard nowadays about the plan for establishing a naval base at Singapore, but we note that Rear-Admiral K. G. B. DEWAR has been expressing his views in print on the subject. The gallant Admiral has no use for what he calls the "white elephant" of Singapore, which, he says, can mean one thing only—war preparations against Japan, because in no other circumstances would a British battle fleet be needed in the Pacific.

He proceeds to declare that Japan regards Singapore as a menace to her Western trade. War preparations against Japan, who has been a loyal friend for half a century, were inexcusable. Japan's political and economic interests were centred in Korea, Manchuria and North China. Her territorial ambitions were to the southward. Japan could not but suspect that Singapore was a definite outcome of the post-war atmosphere, in which the huge war machine, having been set running, could not be stopped. Its utility was most doubtful, and it was questionable whether Britain would ever be able to move the fleet so far from European waters. Probably nothing less than a garrison of 30,000 first-class troops and an air force would render it reasonably secure.

If it was necessary to prepare for war in the Pacific, the centres of supply and repair depots should be in Australia. The fleet should not have a fixed base, but should be free to move from one anchorage to another, or remain at sea, supplied, as the United States fleet was, by oilers and storeships. "Big battleships," Rear-Admiral Dewar adds, "are already half doomed by the London Conference. Are we to continue to squander millions on something which may be useless in a few years?"

★ News and Views ★

The Federal Cabinet has agreed to allow Horatio Bottomley to come to Australia for three months on a lecture tour. In making this announcement the Minister for Home Affairs (Mr. Blakeley) said:—"As Mr. Bottomley has expiated his offence, the Cabinet saw no reason why his application to visit should be refused. He may talk about whatever he likes as long as he does not contravene the law of the Commonwealth." Recently, Mr. Bottomley was refused permission to enter Canada and the United States on a lecture tour because he was a convicted person. On his return to London Mr. Bottomley made application to the High Commissioner for Australia (Sir Granville Ryrie) to be allowed to visit the Commonwealth, and it was necessary for the Cabinet to grant him a certificate of exemption.

The United States Supreme Court ruled that the buying of beverage liquor from a bootlegger was lawful. The Government sought to punish a purchaser in a test case under the Volstead Act. Mr. Justice Sutherland read the Court's opinion, which held that the Volstead Act imposed no criminal liability on the purchaser of illegal liquor, and pointed out the significance of Congress not having taken action to penalize liquor buyers specifically.

Opening the Blackburn Cotton Week last month, Mr. Tom Shaw said that if by wise political action, the people of India become contented, happy and prosperous there would not be a spindle or loom stopped in England. If there could be devised a way by which a shilling a week could be added to the wages of the peasants of India there would be a demand for cloth that would exceed the capacity of the Lancashire mills to satisfy, as well as keeping the Indian mills going. It was to our interest, as well as India's, that India should be at peace and prosperous. China at peace would restore Lancashire's prosperity. At present China was cut up into hostile camps, and soldiers in every province were eating up from the face of the earth the things on which people should live.

The New Zealand Cricket Council recently issued the balance-sheet of last season's M.C.C. cricket tour. There is a surplus of £1,407 over expenditure, and it has been decided to remit £1,400 towards the £1,600 due for expenses and wages of the English professionals. The report adds that but for the rain which interfered with many important games, including the complete washing out of the third Test, the Council would have been able to pay the whole of the professionals' fees and shown a profit of £1,600.

Nearly 100 men sought work with Wirth's Circus, at the Grand Opera House in Sydney recently, in response to an advertisement calling for 12 labourers to travel with the circus in the country. Jobs were found for 30. Although applicants were not to be interviewed until 10 o'clock, the first of them arrived outside the stage door at 4 o'clock. Some of them came from places as far afield as Perth. Hundreds of men gathered within a few hours, crowded the pavement, and overflowed into the roadway. There was a little scrambling and jostling for positions in the queue when the door opened, but otherwise the crowd was well-behaved. The two or three policemen present had an easy task supervising the muster.

A husband who knew there was something wrong with his wife's hand during all the 20 years of their married life, but never liked to ask her what was the matter for fear of hurting her feelings, gave evidence at a Maesteg inquest last month. He was David David, a local butcher, and he said that his wife, Annie, who was the subject of the inquest, was very reserved and sensitive. She kept her hand covered with mittens. She became ill but refused to see a doctor. Later she became so ill that she insisted on fetching one. Dr. Wilfred Jewitt said that the woman's hand and arm were badly ulcerated, and some of her fingers were missing. Death was caused by general blood poisoning resulting from insufficient treatment of her septic arm. The jury returned a verdict accordingly, and said the husband unintentionally neglected his duty in not calling a doctor before.

It is reported to be practically certain that the police at Dusseldorf have secured the "ripper," whose crimes have filled Germany with horror. The man arrested is a workman named Peter Kuerten, and according to the chief of police, he has confessed to 10 murders and 10 assaults on women.

There was much "money to burn" in Paris recently. As a result of the coming into force of the Young Reparation Plan, the bonds and stocks which under the Dawes Plan guaranteed the German Reparation debt have become useless. They were therefore destroyed by burning. The money burned at the Reparation Office included £6,800,000,000 worth of A, B, and C Reparation bonds, handed over by Germany in May 1921, when the Reparation payments were fixed at that amount. In addition there were certificates for £500,000,000 worth of German railway stock. At the Bank of France the certificates for £550,000,000 worth of industrial stocks was also committed to the flames.

Bringing several giant tortoises from Indefatigable Island, one of the Galapagos group in the Pacific Ocean, a party of New York scientists, guests of Mr. Vincent Astor, on his yacht Nourmahal, have returned to New York after a six weeks' exploring expedition. The object of the expedition was to obtain a few live specimens of these tortoises, the existence of which had been in doubt, but the scientists captured eight of them, weighing 40 to 60 pounds each. Hundreds of strange sea and mountain life specimens were also brought along, including sea lions and 200 live fishes of a variety never before seen in New York.

The claim of a young Italian at Ballarat years ago to extract electricity from the air is recalled in a story from Rome. A youth, Saverio Natella, claims to have discovered electric waves, other than Hertzian, from which he can extract untold energy from the air. He was on the point of demonstrating his ability in the electric-lightless village of Postano, but the Government intervened, and forbade the experiment until it was officially investigated. Natella was nearly electrocuted during a recent experiment, and it took two hours to restore him to consciousness. A Belgian, Professor Scholer, is reported to be enthusiastic over Natella's discovery.

The master of a passenger boat was fined $9 at the Marine Court yesterday when he was charged with carrying cargo instead of passengers on his vessel. It was stated that the licence fee for a cargo boat was $9.

Chai Keh, a Chinese tallyman, employed on board the Empress of Asia, was removed to Kowloon Hospital, suffering from opium poisoning. It was stated that the drug was administered by the man himself at the Hotel Nathan, Kowloon.

Suffering from injuries received to his left arm, Lai Ken, an employee at the South China Knitting Factory, has been removed to the Kowloon Hospital. The unfortunate man received the injuries as a result of his arm having been caught in the machinery of a steam drier at the factory.

Ip Fat, a youth of 18, thought it might be good fun to hold his arm out of the window when he was travelling from Shataukok to Fanling on a motor-bus as his vehicle was passing another in Samehun village. His arm was caught by the front of the other vehicle and was fractured. Ip Fat now lies in the Kowloon Hospital a sadder but wiser man.

Mr. E. Christensen, of Messrs. Christensen & Company, David House, Des Vaux Road Central, reported to the police yesterday the loss of three cheques on the Equitable Eastern Banking Corporation. The cheques, which were blank and bearing Nos. 35732, 35907, 35908, were extracted from a book lying in an open safe some time after the tiffin hour on Tuesday.

For failing to renew his licence, the master of a fishing junk was fined $3 (the licence fee) by the Hon. Comdr G. F. Hole, R.N., yesterday.

For assaulting a woman with whom he had been living for about a month, a Chinese was sentenced to three weeks' hard labour, when he appeared before Mr. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday. The woman was struck on the chest when she was carrying a baby. His Worship sternly rebuked the defendant, and said that the child might have been killed if the woman had fallen backwards.

It took just one picture, the "Show Boat," to gain recognition for Joseph Schildkraut as one of the most romantic figures at present on the screen. Schildkraut's latest all-talking production, "The Mississippi Gambler," comes to the Queen's Theatre on Sunday, and in it he is supported by an outstanding cast, including beautiful Joan Bennett, Carmelita Geraghty, Alec B. Francis, Otis Harlin, Billy Welsh and others.

Mr. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday cautioned a Chinese youth, who was alleged to have struck a small boy on the head with a dipper. The quarrel arose when the two were waiting to have their water buckets filled. The Magistrate described the defendant's behaviour as cowardly, as the small boy had to have stitches put in. His Worship bound the defendant over, and ordering him to pay $2 compensation, he said "There is enough water for everybody at present. You should not quarrel over it now."

Looking Back 25 Years.

The statue of Sir Thomas Jackson, Bart., which is to be erected on one of the vacant plots in front of the premises of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, was completed before last mail left London, and will arrive here very shortly. Signor Raggi, to whom Sir Thomas gave four sittings, has been engaged on this work nearly eighteen months, including a delay at the foundry for two months. The statue is in bronze, and represents Sir Thomas wearing a frock-coat. The figure is ten feet high and is to be erected on a pedestal eleven feet high. In an interview with a representative of our London office, Signor Raggi mentioned that Sir Thomas' family are very pleased with the statue, considering it an excellent likeness. — Hong Kong Daily Press, June 27, 1905.

Looking Back 50 Years.

In the course of an address to a meeting of the volunteers, His Excellency the Governor said:—"Just before I had the pleasure of seeing you, I received a Chinese gentleman whose card I hold in my hand, Mr. Luk U. Shing, and he put into my hand a rifle which he himself has invented and made with his own hands. Now, your Commandant, Captain Coxon, is a good judge of such things. (Here his Excellency handed the rifle to Captain Coxon for inspection.) The fact is this gentleman who has just been with me brought this rifle with him for this purpose: he asked me to communicate with Her Majesty's Government and point out what he alleged, that this rifle will fire with greater rapidity and certainty than the Martini-Henry. I myself have no technical knowledge of such things, but in compliance with his request I intend to forward the rifle with the papers he has written, to Her Majesty's Government. These are all in Chinese, but my learned friend, Dr. Eitel, will translate them, and no doubt at the War Office they will be able to have a report made on this rifle." — Hong Kong Daily Press, June 23, 1880.

TITLE OF LUNGHAI

CAMPAIGN'S DECISIVE BATTLE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEKING, June 26. Reliable foreign messages report a very severe battle has been going on the Lunghai front during past week.

It is confirmed that Chiang Kai-shek sustained a check about the 1st inst., but since then he has won in large reinforcements.

Chiang Kai-shek is employing at least ten divisions there, while the National Government has also received large reinforcements.

Chiang Kai-shek is attempting to flank the allies' right wing and advance towards Kaifeng from the south, but he is meeting with very stern opposition.

The result is still hanging in the balance.

This may prove the decisive battle of the campaign.

GOVERNMENT FORCES' PROGRESS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, June 26. An official report from Kweichow states:—

"On the Lunghai Railway sector, the left wing of the Government forces, headed by a cavalry corps, is advancing through Kichien towards Kaifeng, and has reached a point 15 miles south of Kaifeng."

"The centre of the Second Army Corps penetrated the rebels' first line of defence at Lanfeng, and is marching along the Lunghai Railway line towards Kaifeng."

"On the Peking-Hankow Railway the Government units are continuing their advance towards the North."

The message adds that the Kuomintang counter-attack in the Peking-Hankow Railway sector on the 24th inst. was repulsed after an eight-hour engagement.

Five thousand insurgents were captured.

Kuomintang Sustain Heavy Casualties.

[Wah Tsz Yat Pao.]

SHANGHAI, June 26. During the battle at Chihhsien on the Lunghai Railway line a few days ago, the Kuomintang troops under Sun Liang Cheng sustained heavy casualties.

Feng Yu Hsiang has instructed them to remain on the defensive.

Rebels Lose Heavily.

[Wah Tsz Yat Pao.]

ELECTRICITY PRODUCTION EXPERIMENT.

FAILURE AFTER QUARTER OF A MILLION EXPENDITURE.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

HAVANA, June 25. An attempt to bring the Gulf Stream into the professor's laboratory near Matanza, where turbines would have generated electricity, has failed owing to the giant tube of corrugated steel, 2,000 yards long, collapsing and being completely destroyed when it sank into the sea near Matanza.

The idea, elaborated by the French scientist, M. Georges Claude, was to utilise the difference between the temperature of the Gulf Stream and the cold waters beneath and thereby produce electricity.

The experiment cost $250,000 including a railway, a quarter of a mile long over the water.

ALL QUIET AT TSINAN

PEACEFUL ENTRY BY SHANSI TROOPS.

POWERS TO MEDIATE IN NORTHERN STRUGGLE?

TSINAN, June 26. Tsinan was taken over by the Shansi troops peacefully at noon on Wednesday. As there were no loyal troops in the vicinity, nothing untoward occurred. Peace and order are now being gradually restored.

Before the evacuation of the Nanking troops under Han Fu Chu, the Provincial Government of Shantung and the various Governmental organisations in Tsinan were removed to Tsingtao by rail. The telegraph station has also been removed there.

Over 10,000 of Han's troops have arrived at Chowsun on the Kiaochow-Tsinan Railway, where General Han is staying.

General Li Fu Ying of the Shansi troops has been named Garrison Commander of Tsinan.

Advance On Kaifeng.

According to a message from Hanchow, the Nanking troops on the Lunghai Railway front have been ordered by Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, since the arrival of the reinforcements under General Mo Ping Wen, to advance on Kaifeng, the capital of Honan. The Nanking advance forces are said to have arrived at a point about 100 li from Kaifeng.

Feng Yu Hsiang has ordered the Kuomintang forces under Liu Yu Fen to move from the Peking-Hankow Railway line to co-operate with the troops on the Lunghai line. As regards the situation in Honan along the Peking-Hankow Railway line, everything appears to be quiet.

A private report from Peking states that in view of the chronic nature of the present warfare, the authorities of the Legations are taking steps to mediate between the warring parties. The British Legation is said to be especially interested in that movement.

ROYAL MAIL STEAM PACKET CO.

DEFAULTS IN PREFERENCE DIVIDENDS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, June 25. The Royal Mail Steam Packet Group has sprung yet another surprise on the City.

The Company itself announces that it will not pay the preference dividends on July 1.

The subsidiary White Star Company has also not earned sufficient to meet the preference dividend payable on July 1 and the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company is consequently liable under the guarantee.

TIENTSIN CUSTOMS DISPUTE.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OFFERS TO MEDIATE.

[Wah Tsz Yat Pao.]

TIENTSIN, June 26. The General Chamber of Commerce and the Bankers' Association have taken steps to mediate in the Customs dispute.

Mr. Simpson, with the Chinese authorities, is studying the question of the collection of Customs duties at Shanghai and elsewhere on goods destined for Tientsin.

No important decisions have yet been arrived at.

Shanghai Chinese Superintendent's Views.

SHANGHAI, June 26. Mr. Liu Chi Wen, the superintendent of the local Customs, stated in an interview that the action of the Nanking Finance Ministry to close the Customs house at Tientsin is only of a temporary nature.

Mr. Liu added that, so far, the Central Government has not enforced the decision to dispatch gunboats to examine vessels going to or departing from Tientsin.

Mr. Liu bitterly condemned Yen Hsi Shan's seizure of the Tientsin Customs as a frustration of the organization of the national finance, and a curse to the Customs administration.

Legations Conference.

PEKING, June 26. In a statement, the Dutch Minister said that an important conference was held by the authorities of the foreign Legations on the 24th inst. for the discussion of the Tientsin Customs issue, when it was unanimously decided to lodge a protest with both Nanking and Shansi should the duties of goods destined for Tientsin be collected by both parties.

The authorities of the Legations will take drastic action as soon as the dual collection of the Customs duties begins.

PRICE OF CLOTH IN INDIA.

PREVENTING PROFITEERING.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

The millowners also agree not to produce cloth which can compete with homespun.

PUNJAB GOVERNMENT BANS ORGANISATIONS.

ENDANGERING PUBLIC PEACE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LAHORE, June 25. The Punjab Government has declared a number of "war councils" and civil resistance committees, together with the Workers' Training College and other Punjab organisations, as being unlawful on the ground that they are interfering with the maintenance of law and endanger the public peace.

The Congress party has decided to ignore the order.

SEVILLE SITUATION IMPROVED.

"STRIKE" OF COMMUNISTIC ORIGIN.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SEVILLE, June 25. There has been a distinct improvement in the "strike" situation, which is authoritatively described as being of communistic origin.

The Governor does not intend to employ troops, but the police have been instructed to maintain order and protect willing workers.

BOYCOTT OF BRITISH BANKS IN INDIA.

MERCHANTS URGED TO WITHDRAW DEPOSITS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BOMBAY, June 26. An extraordinary meeting of the Bombay Cotton Brokers' Association passed a resolution calling on Indian merchants to withdraw their deposits from British banks before July 1, and urging Indians to cease to deal with such banks from that date.

CONSTITUTION OF MALTA.

GOVERNMENT NOT YIELDING TO VATICAN DEMANDS.

LORD STRICKLAND DEFENDS HIS ACTIONS.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSY, June 25. In the House of Lords, Lord Strickland asked the Government whether they were still endeavouring to renew negotiations for a Concordat between the ecclesiastical and civil authorities in Malta, whether the former had yet given orders which would restore to the electorate of the Colony complete freedom to exercise their political judgment, and how long it was expected that it might be necessary to suspend the holding of elections in the Colony.

Appeal to Lord Strickland.

Viscount Fitzalan appealed to Lord Strickland, Premier of Malta, who was present in the House, to make some gesture that might alleviate the present situation and which would place him in the position which he ought to hold in the Island of Malta. He believed much good could come of such a gesture, and that peace and spiritual welfare would be restored to that great historic island fortress.

Lord Strickland Defends His Conduct.

Lord Strickland thanked the Government for the decision it had arrived at. He said that the Government's declaration did not mean a suspension of the Constitution. It only meant a suspension of the elections. But, having got to that state, the problem was how to get out, and the way to do that was by further Ordinances.

Therefore he accepted, loyally and freely, any apparent or real diminution of his previous authority.

Defending his conduct of affairs in Malta, Lord Strickland said: "I may have been tactless sometimes, but not always. I have been Governor under the Crown four times, and I should not have been Governor twice if I was."

Imperial Government Impartial.

Lord Passfield, Colonial Secretary, said the Government had never taken sides in this matter. It was with the greatest regret that the Government were driven to take the step they had taken and even temporarily to suspend the Constitution. They were suspending the Constitution in order to save it. The Constitution was not being maintained if freedom of election was taken away. When they could get back to freedom of election, the Constitution would be restored.

During the suspension, the Government would be carried on by the Governor, by means of Orders-in-Council.

Lord Strickland and Colleagues to Remain.

The Government, said Lord Passfield, were not going to give way to the demands of the Vatican that Lord Strickland and his colleagues should be removed.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

Electoral Law Null and Void.

Important developments are expected to follow the action of the Court of Appeal deciding against the Government in a case affecting the validity of the laws enacted by the late Legislature.

The plaintiff sought the specific annulment of the election of a member of the Senate and a member of the Assembly of the late Parliament as illegal.

The Treasury Counsel argued that by virtue of the recent ordinance the Court had no jurisdiction on such questions, but the Chief Justice decided otherwise and declared that the electoral law was null and void.

Government Appeal to Privy Council.

It is understood that the Government will appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council against the Court of Appeal's decision that the Electoral Law was passed while two unseated Senators continued to sit.

GREAT ICELAND FESTIVAL.

MILLENNARY OF OLDEST PARLIAMENT.

KING OF DENMARK'S FIRST VISIT.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

REYKJAVIK, June 25. Thousands of foreigners, officials and tourists from all over the world today mingled with farmers and fishermen of Iceland for the three days' festival to celebrate the millenary of the Icelandic Althing, the oldest Parliament known. A huge camp has sprung up on Thingvellir plateau, which is capable of holding 30,000 people.

The King of Denmark has arrived as the King of Iceland. This will be the first time that his Icelandic subjects have seen him.

British Delegates.

Great Britain has sent delegations from both Houses of Parliament aboard the battleship Rodney, while two of Britain's largest flying-boats have flown out to Iceland from Portsmouth.

Divine Service in Open Air.

The feature of the festival today will be a divine service which will be held in the open air.

Afterward there will be a procession to the old Assize Stone, where meetings of the Althing were held for 900 years.

Latest Candidate for League of Nations.

On Friday, the real Althing may decide to enter the League of Nations.

The jollifications on Saturday will include, as of yore, wrestling and national dances to conclude the festival.

REYKJAVIK, June 25. The oldest Parliament in the world celebrated the thousandth anniversary of its birthday today. Festivities throughout Iceland in honour of the Althing started this morning to continue until Saturday night.

This tiny republic, with a population of only a little over 100,000, has thrown itself into three days of holiday-making on an occasion which is and which is likely to be unprecedented.

It is packed full of visitors from all parts of the world, so full that veritable cities of tents have been erected at Thingvellir, the original meeting-place of the Althing, and at Lake Reykjavik, to house them.

Preparations have been going on now for almost a year, and the tents which have been pitched in regular camp formation near the scene of the festivities have been let out at a moderate charge.

Water is laid on, and scullery facilities provided. Doctors are in attendance, and there is a drug-store, post-office, telegraph-office and a foreign money-exchange. In Reykjavik, itself, there are only four hotels, one of them just completed, and it is expected that many of the visitors will live on the ships that brought them here.

Distinguished Visitors.

One King, two Crown Princes, forty representatives of 25 independent States, 2,000 Icelanders living in the United States, who chartered two liners to bring them here; 20,000 Icelandic farmers, and at least the same number of tourists from all over the world, are here for the celebrations. The three Royal personages are King Christian, Crown Prince Olaf of Norway, and Crown Prince Gustav Adolf of Sweden.

The official programme started at 9 a.m. with divine service in the glen Almannagja. This was followed by a procession to Logberg, or the Hill of Laws, of the people from different districts grouped under banners.

At 10.30 a.m. the festivities were declared officially open by the singing of the Icelandic national anthem "O Guo vors lands," by the Thingvellir choir, followed by a speech by the Prime Minister, Tryggvi Thorhallsson, which in turn was followed by the first part of the festivities' cantata.

Foreign Delegates.

The King of Sweden opened the Althing at 11.30 a.m., and the President of the United Althing delivered a speech. Part two of the cantata was then given, and after lunch the President of the United Althing received the guests at Logberg, when delegates of foreign Parliaments delivered two-minute speeches. The remainder of the day was taken up by a concert, an official banquet, and a display of "Glima," or Icelandic wrestling.

Tomorrow morning there will be speeches, recitals and horse-races, while in the afternoon the Icelandic Canadians will be welcomed officially at Logberg, when they will deliver greetings from Icelanders in Canada. This will be followed by a pageant of old Icelandic parliamentary proceedings, with a concert of modern music and athletics.

On Saturday the Althing will be formally closed, followed by a concert, a gymnastic display, a concert by the national choir, historical pageants, and finally the Premier will close the festivities at Logberg.

SPLENDID ATLANTIC FLIGHT.

FOG BANKS HINDERED PROGRESS.

SAVED BY "WONDERFUL WIRELESS."

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

HARBOUR GRACE, June 25. The delay between the time of the arrival of the "Southern Cross" over the aerodrome at about six o'clock in the morning, local time, and the actual landing half an hour later, was due to the fact that thick fog almost blinded the aviators. They circled and re-circled the aerodrome before they put the nose of the machine towards the ground and risked a landing, which was successfully made.

The four men were all in a very fit condition, but they were greatly hampered by fog on the coast of Newfoundland in the early hours of the morning.

Compass and Wireless Difficulties.

Then they had trouble with their compass and with the wireless receiving gear. The wireless station at Cape Race was unable to give the "Southern Cross" her bearings, and Kingsford-Smith lost more time circling to the south-east of Newfoundland before establishing his position.

By this time the wireless was functioning again, but the petrol supply was running dangerously low.

On landing, Kingsford-Smith declared: "But for the wonderful wireless we should never have escaped from the fog."

The machine is now being refueled, and when this has been completed it is proposed to continue immediately to New York.

Flight to New York Continued.

HARBOUR GRACE, June 26. The "Southern Cross" has left here for New York.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

Air Council's Congratulations.

RUSSY, June 25.

The Air Ministry announces that Lord Thomson, Secretary for Air, has sent the following message to Major Kingsford-Smith:—

"On behalf of the Air Council I warmly congratulate you and your comrades in the 'Southern Cross' on your splendid Atlantic flight."

Airmen Nearly Blinded by Fog.

Major Kingsford-Smith, the famous Australian aviator, who with his three companions in the aeroplane "Southern Cross" landed at Harbour Grace, Newfoundland, this morning after crossing the Atlantic in thirty and a half hours, flies on to New York tomorrow.

It is now revealed what difficulties the airmen encountered. For over five hours they were circling in fog off Newfoundland, some of the fog banks being so severe that the airmen were nearly blinded. They were unable to obtain accurate bearings of their position owing to trouble with the compass and had to fly more or less at random. Eventually they located their position by wireless.

It had been estimated that the petrol supply would be sufficient for thirty-eight hours flying, but head winds had caused a greater consumption of fuel.

SHANGHAI PORT.

NANKING TAKES OVER HEALTH ADMINISTRATION.

QUARANTINE CODE DRAWN UP.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, June 26. The National Government announces that the Health Ministry on July 1 is taking over the Shanghai Port Health Administration, hitherto under the control of the Maritime Customs, and it is hoped later to extend the Ministry's supervision throughout China.

A new quarantine code has been drawn up by the well-known Dr. Wu Lien Teh, who has been appointed Health Officer, in co-operation with Dr. C. L. Park, a League of Nations expert, which is claimed to be the most up-to-date in the world.

The Health Ministry proposes shortly to establish medical stations at Amoy and Swatow in connection with the huge emigration and immigration of South China with Malaysia.

DISTURBANCE IN BOLIVIA.

MILITARY FIRE ON DEMONSTRATORS.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

BUENOS AIRES, June 26. It is reported that 34 persons, including women and children, were killed and hundreds wounded at La Paz, Bolivia, following a demonstration against General Kundi, Commanding the Government forces.

The forces fired on the mob. The demonstrators later paraded with the corpses.

Many arrests were effected, but the censorship is very strict, and no details are available.

ENGLAND'S TEST TEAM.

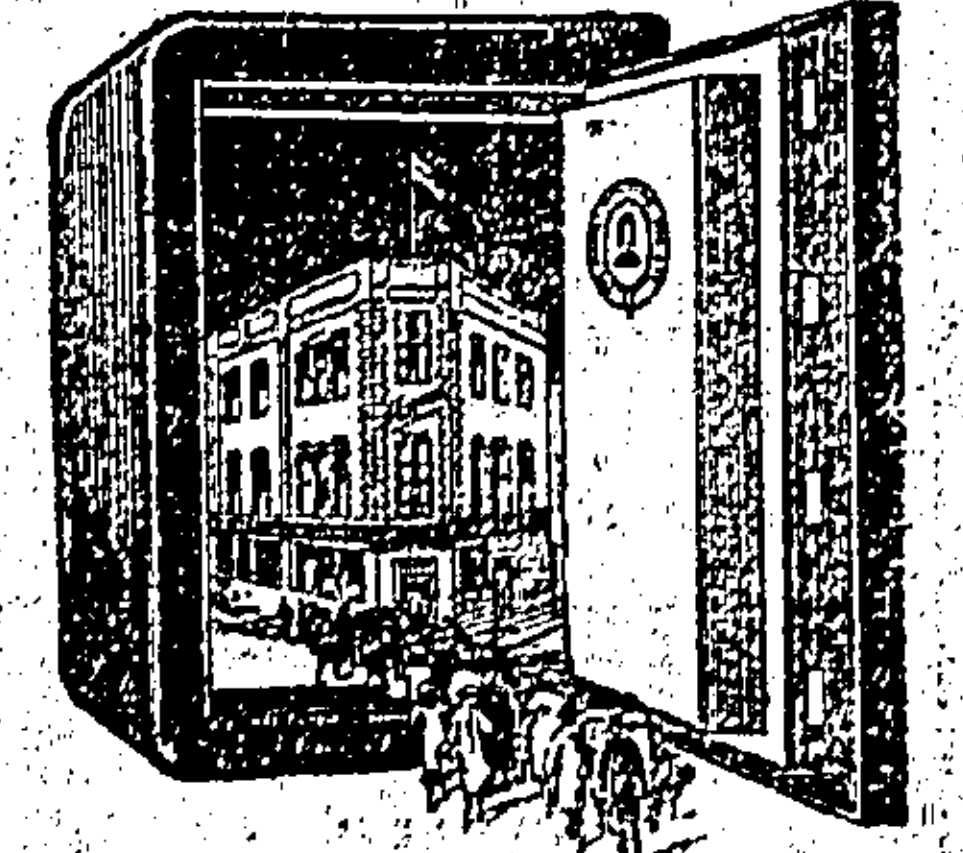

ALLEN AND WHITE INVITED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, June 25. Mr. H. D. G. Leveson-Gower, chairman of the Selection Committee, announced to-day that invitations to be present at Lord's on Friday when the second Test match begins against the Australians have been sent to J. C. White (Somerset) and G. O. B. Allen of Middlesex.

Consequently, when he was further delayed by fog, Kingsford-Smith had to abandon the idea of reaching the main coast, where he had proposed to refuel in order to go on to New York, and landed at Harbour Grace.

The "Southern Cross" is only the second plane to fly the Atlantic from east to west. The first was the plane of Captain Kohl, Major Fitzmaurice and Baron von Huenefeld which flew from Dublin to Labrador in April, 1928.

Lawn Bowls.

TO-MORROW'S LEAGUE PROGRAMME.

PROSPECTS FOR THE LEADERS.

[By "BACK WOOD."]

Lawn bowlers are engaged to-morrow in the eighth series of matches. The two Valley Clubs, who are running neck and neck in the senior division, have a fairly easy programme in front of them. Craigenower travel to Kowloon C.C., where they should not have any difficulty in getting the points. In their previous meeting Kowloon C.C. lost to the champions at the Valley by 25 shots. I think Civil Service will also prove their superiority when they receive the Club de Recreio. The King's Park team have been handicapped recently owing to some of their players being unable to turn out. Provided their outfit is complete, Club de Recreio are likely to provide strong opposition, and any chance of their getting the points will be in a way helping the champions.

Kowloon Dock have had a bad season so far, their only successes being in their away matches with Kowloon C.C. and the Police. They have tried twice at home only to see the visitors take the points by a few shots. In their third match at home they are meeting the Bowling Green Club. The visitors are undoubtedly the better team and will again be favourites for the points, which they took the last time by 19 shots. However, I feel that Kowloon Dock will on this occasion insist on their rights to keep the points at home. Taikeo are travelling to the Valley to meet the Police, which meeting is likely to end "according to routine."

A glance at the second division League Table, which is appended, will show the wide gulf between the two leading teams and their competitors. The Yacht Club stand in the proud position of being at the top of the remaining teams, and I expect to see them with double-figure points at the end of their visit to Club de Recreio. Civil Service and the Bowling Green appear to be quite competent to deal with the opposition and maintain their winning sequence. Taikeo are entertaining the Valley team, while the Bowlers are at home to the Cricketers. Craigenower, at home, give promise of defeating the Electricians. Incidentally, since Craigenower beat the Electricians at North Point, they have been beaten successively five times. On the whole the probability of the honours being shared by home and visiting teams in the senior division appears also to be borne out by the juniors as the engagements stand for the week-end.

LEAGUE MATCHES REVIEWED.

SHOULD THERE BE MORE COMPETITIONS?

[By "SERVER."]

The most important match in the "B" division was decided on Tuesday when the Chinese Recreation Club beat the Indians by a comfortable margin at Sookunpoo. The match attracted a large crowd and the standard of play was unusually high, every point being keenly fought for, and eagerly counted by the supporters of the two teams.

The Indians were out played when it came to base-line rallies, but when they advanced to the net, they brought off some excellent shots, and time and again both sides won rounds of applause for good recoveries. A feature of the match was that all the three sets that the Indians took were claimed by A. A. Rumjahn and J. S. A. Currcem, who played very well together. They had the satisfaction of beating C. Choa and H. Lo, who are hailed by many as the champion pair of the "B" division.

On Wednesday, the Chinese and Indians met again, in the "C" division this time, and here again the Chinese were victorious. They have now two wins to their credit against one by the Indians (Mixed Doubles), and I feel sure when these two clubs meet in the "A" division, the I.R.C. crowd will go all out to even up matters. The Indians and Craigenower Cricket Club are due to play off their postponed fixture to-morrow in the "B" division, and in spite of the fact that the former met with a set-back on Tuesday, I consider they will more than hold their own against the Happy Valley crowd. It will be a battle between the two Valleys—Sookunpoo and "Happy"—and as there has always been a distinct rivalry between these two Clubs, the game will be all the better to watch.

To drift back to the subject I dwelt on last week. One of the main reasons why interest lags in tennis circles during the "off" season in Hong Kong is that there is no competition of real interest. True, we have the leagues, but as matches consist of only doubles and either one of two clubs seems a dead certainty to take first honours, players do not go to the trouble of retaining their top form, apart altogether from the question of improvement.

DECIDING GAME TO BE PLAYED THIS WEEK.

Much progress has been made in the Schools' volley ball league and the deciding match in the "A" division will be played off some time during the week.

In point of tournaments or exhibitions during the summer and autumn, Hong Kong is behind Shanghai and Tientsin. In the former port open championships events are held one after another, with a rest period between each, and then there are the Hard Court Championships which are held in November and completed in two weeks.

As regards Tientsin, it is understood that although all the championships are held from the middle of September to the first half of October, the interest of the leading players is sustained by the fact that league encounters are decided by two singles and one doubles with a point for each separate singles and doubles. Matches against visiting teams from Peking and Japan are arranged every year, while there is also the Hong Doubles, which, as in Shanghai, are followed with keen interest by players of all nationalities. Among others, there are pairs composed of Chinese, Japanese, French, British, Dutch, Indians, Italians, Germans, Russians, Jews and Belgians.

Tournaments not only stimulate interest, but also help a great deal toward improving the standard of a player. No one knows his faults or imperfections until they are forcibly pointed out to him, and this can be done by playing in a series of competitions within a year. In this class there are no two better examples than E. C. Fincher and C. A. L. Rumjahn. If Fincher could only drive as well as he can, he might be able to stand up to any player in Hong Kong. He reminds us of that heart-breaking cut-stroke exponent, O. Rumjahn, who defeated Honda when the latter first came to Hong Kong shortly after he won the Malayan championship. But Rumjahn has never yet won a singles championship title although he has thrice been within a match of doing so, once in Hong Kong, and twice in Tientsin, for cuts are exasperating when it comes to baseline play, but a volley usually is the conqueror of this stroke. Fincher has the instincts of a match player. He is not fast on his feet as many of his younger opponents are, but he makes up for this by intelligent anticipation, and further strengthens his armour by taking the net position—his opponent's main source of offense—against him.

It is surprising how some players sacrifice one stroke for others. C. A. L. Rumjahn has shown in his local performances that he can hold his own at driving and volleying, but when it comes to overhead work, he is sadly lacking, and this deficiency has cost him many a valuable point in a hard fought game. "C. A. L." who won the Tientsin championship at singles in 1926, 1928 and 1929, doubles from 1925 to 1929 and mixed doubles from 1927 to 1929, has yet to show that the standard of tennis there is as high as it is in Hong Kong, but he has many years to do so yet, if he stays here.

During the past week, local fans have had many opportunities of watching the Meiji University "stars" in action, but as they were only having "knock-outs," it is rather difficult to form any opinion on them beyond the fact that they give the impression that they are a speedy, hard-hitting lot; they will give the local leading lights all the work they want in order to keep the Colony's flag flying when they meet in the exhibition games on the K.C.C. ground to-day and to-morrow.

This afternoon's games are more or less in the nature of a "curtain raiser," but to-morrow's ties will be worth going a long way to see, as the visitors' best will be pitted against the Colony's best, and some very good games are sure to result.

BABE RUTH'S 22ND HOME RUN.

CUBS' HEAVY HITTING UPSETS BRAVES.

[UNITED PRESS.]

New York, June 10.—The Athletics climbed another rung up the ladder of the American League, to-day, by defeating the Cleveland Indians and increasing their percentage to .621, while the Senators likewise moved up, to .559, and the Yanks pressed close behind the Athletics.

In the game with the Athletics, Cleveland did not make a run until the seventh inning, when one tally was registered, with another in the ninth to give the Indians the short end of a 4-2 score.

Babe Ruth hit his twenty-second home run of the present season, against Detroit, in the seventh inning, with the bases empty. It represented the score needed to win, 5 to 4, with the Yanks making but eight hits while the Tigers got 10.

The Boston Red Sox took the St. Louis Browns into camp by 4-1. The Browns' lone tally was made by "Goose" Goslin, just acquired from the Senators, in the last inning.

Playing at Washington, the Senators won from the White Sox by 3-1 in a tightly-pitched contest wherein the Sox got only four hits. Brooklyn's Dodgers lost to the Cincinnati Reds by 5-0 at Cincinnati, but they remained well at the top of the National circuit, with a percentage of .630, as compared with Chicago's .571. Kelp of the Reds pitched flawlessly and hit a double. Brooklyn made but seven hits, and committed two errors.

The Cubs beat the Boston Braves by 10-4 at Chicago, with each team committing one error and with 13 hits for the Cubs as compared with half-a-dozen for Boston.

The untimely wave of illness which has overtaken the Test cricketers seems to be spreading to Wimbledon.

Mrs. Watson (Britain), in addition to Senorita Alvarez (Spain), has been compelled to scratch from all sections, being confined to her bed.

Wimbledon Tradition Upheld.

The bare-leg question was revived to-day when the American, Miss Edith Cox, and the Danish player, Miss Stocken, appeared at Wimbledon without stockings.

They were reminded of the Wimbledon tradition, and the players then explained that they had acted in ignorance.

All the overseas players have now been instructed regarding stockings.

EASTERN NEWS IN BRIEF.

PARS FROM EVERYWHERE.

A number of South Sea Communists have been sentenced in Bangkok to 15 years imprisonment.

At a meeting of Chinese organisations in Bangkok it was decided to form a Chinese High School. A committee was appointed to draw up a scheme.

Dr. Kao Lu, Chinese Minister to France, has been ordered by the National Government to send a delegate to the International Aviation Conference to be held in Paris during September.

East of Suez it's too decent for words (says Variety). "Night life in Singapore just isn't, as far as Europeans are concerned. When the time tickers approach midnight, orchestras blare forth 'God Save the King.' Even the Prince of Wales couldn't buy a drink after that hour. Some strange paradoxes in this metropolis of the Malay Peninsula. Native almond eyes may buy opium from the Government stores yet a film censor has authority to suppress posters showing bathing girls. Scenes of drinking are deleted from imported films yet, firewater shops are found on every corner."

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

RECOVERY AFTER SLUMP.

New York, June 26.—A substantial recovery was manifest on the New York Stock Exchange to-day, following several days of heavy selling and a heavy short covering caused the market to show considerable improvement, says the daily review of the Dow Jones Financial News Agency.

One of the major bullish factors was the reduction in the New York Federal Reserve Bank rate from 3 per cent. to 2½ per cent. Call money remained at the 2½ per cent. level set yesterday.

Gains Made by Stocks.

Stocks gained from one to six points on the general list, while there was an advance of as much as ten points among some of the specials. Profit-taking sales late in the session did not affect the trend of prices.

The volume of trading declined, and to-day's total sale of stocks came to 3,762,500 shares. Traders favoured U. S. Steel, of the industrial group, and it closed at 161, up 2½ from yesterday. Bethlehem moved up 2½ points to close at 93½. The Dow Jones average was up 10.13 to 223.97 for the day.

Among other industrials, Westinghouse jumped 7½ to close at 103½; Eastman Kodak was up 3½ to 93½; Du Pont was up 6½ to 103½; American Can was up 6½ to 121½; Union Carbide was up 5½ to 63½; General Electric was up 4½ to 75½; and American Rolling Mill was up 3½ to 61½.

Buoyancy in Utilities.

The utilities were buoyant and the Dow Jones average for 20 issues was up 4.30 to 83.80. American Tel. & Tel. moved up 4½ to 206½; International Tel. & Tel. was up 3½ to 44½; Radio Corp. was up four points to 38½; Southern California Edison was up 2½ to 63½; Columbia Gas gained 5½ to close at 66½; and Consolidated Gas closed at 103½, up 5½. Commodity prices improved with the advance in the stock market. Wheat was firm, cotton steady and rubber and sugar were also firm. Coffee alone of the commodities was easy.

Rails Higher.

The Dow Jones average for 20 rails was up 2.24 to 131.21. Pennsylvania gained 9½ to close at 72½; New York Central was up four points to 162; Rock Island declined half a point to 103½; B. & O. was up 2½ to 104½; Union Pacific was up 4½ to 214½; and Northern Pacific was up 4½ to 75½. General Motors gained 1½ to close at 41½; Chrysler was up half a point to 96½; Hudson was up 4½ to 31½; and Packard was up 2½ to 135.

TIN OUTPUT REGULATION.

SUSPENSION OF PRODUCTION FOR TWO MONTHS.

(THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.)

LONDON, June 25.

The Executive Committee of the Tin Producers' Association has resolved to recommend the uniform regulation of output effective as from June 1, the basis of the regulation being that 20 per cent. of the 1929 output is to be carried through on the quarterly quota.

The actual production of all members of the Association, as well as of the Billiton Company and the Bolivian producers, is being published at regular intervals. The Executive Committee has also recommended that all production should be suspended for two out of the next three months.
